YABhg Tan Sri James Foong

Retired Judge, Federal Court Malaysia and Director of Legal Plus

YABhg Tan Sri James Foong graduated from law school in 1969 and was called to the Malaysian Bar in 1971. He was in private practice from 1971 until 1990 before being made a Judicial Commissioner in the same year. He was elevated to the High Court in 1992 and the Court of Appeal in 2005. He was made a Federal Court Judge (Supreme Court of Malaysia as it was then known) in 2009. He retired from the judiciary in February 2012. He now keeps himself busy as an advocate and solicitor of the High Court of Malaya, a non-independent director of various private and public-listed companies, running Legal Plus Sdn Bhd, Chairman of the Ombudsman Financial Services and an Adjunct Professor of Law at the Taylor's University and he is doing all these in between his active lifestyle as a cyclist and avid runner.

YAA Tan Sri Datuk Seri Panglima David Wong Dak Wah

Retired Chief Judge of Sabah and Sarawak

YAA Tan Sri Datuk Seri Panglima David Wong Dak Wah read law at University of New South Wales, Sydney, Australia. He also obtained a B.Com (majoring in accountancy) from the same University. From 1978 to 1979 Tan Sri Datuk David was attached to a Public Accounting Firm in Sydney as a qualified auditor. In 1979 he was admitted as a Barrister of the New South Wales Supreme Court in Australia. In 1980, Tan Sri David was admitted to the Sabah Bar and he practiced as an Advocate and Solicitor in Sabah until 1992. In 1992, Tan Sri David practiced in Sydney until 1996. In 1997 he returned to Sabah and practised until 2005. Tan Sri David was appointed a Judicial Commissioner of the High Court of Sabah and Sarawak in Kuching on 29 August 2005 and elevated as a Judge of the High Court of Sabah and Sarawak with effect from 11 April 2007. On 15 January 2009 Tan Sri David was transferred to the High Court of Kota Kinabalu, Sabah until his elevation to the Court of Appeal Malaysia on 8 January 2013. He was appointed as Judge of the Federal Court on 27 April 2018 and Chief Judge of Sabah & Sarawak on 11 July 2018.

Lee Shih

Managing Partner, Lim Chee Wee Partnership

Lee Shih is the Managing Partner of the firm. He acts in cross-border disputes and has appeared in international arbitrations in Asia and Europe. He has acted in arbitrations involving disputes arising from commercial contracts, offshore construction contracts, and oil & gas matters. His work also focuses on corporate litigation and shareholder disputes. He has acted as lead counsel in a variety of shareholder disputes, involving just and equitable winding up, oppression actions and derivative actions. He has acted for clients in bringing claims against directors for breaches of fiduciary duties. He is also the sole Malaysian member of ICC FraudNet, an international network of leading civil asset recovery lawyers in each country.

Louise Azmi

Partner, Ravindran and Azmi Chambers | Arbitrator (FCI Arb)

Louise Azmi was called to the Bar of England and Wales in July 2004, and was in private practice as a Barrister for 11 years in England until she relocated to Malaysia in 2015. Admitted as Advocate and Solicitor of the High Court of Malaya, she is one of a few lawyers in Malaysia to be dual qualified, and to have experience in practice in both jurisdictions. Louise is the second British woman to be admitted in Malaysia since the introduction of the Bahasa Malaysia Legal Qualifying Exam in 1984.

Louise is a confident advocate, and is cited in the Legal 500 UK (2013) as "having achieved some frankly astonishing results". Louise takes pride in giving sound advice, and providing creative legal solutions.

She is a qualified Arbitrator (FCI Arb), Adjudicator (AIAC) and Mediator (MMC and AIAC).
